

cast before my eyes deceive me a vision of my life cannot seem to help myself the helpless won't survive free us from the beds of hell heavens overthrown
the ruler of the reaaalm is seen in evil and of sorrow blessed is the strength of man inbeded life entombed feeding off the sicken(e?)D of man and his abuse

help you, help me
save us, and everybody!

I first started thinking i was insane tryed to talk but could not really say i turned my pleasure into the pain let reality slip away!

I have to face my punishment my sins i will repent!

As i look to the heavens above reach for the sky to be touched by the love!
