

Fearing These Days

Texas

You only see me when I laugh, never hear me when I cry
And I'm tired of fearing these days
I'm sitting here on my own, talking to myself alone
And I'm tired of fearing these days

All I needed was an, an explanation
Why you treat me so mean
You always play the part with no, no hesitation
That's the other side I've seen

Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall
Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall

If all my nightmares come today, will you hide them far away?
'Cause I'm tired of fearing these days
It'll wash away the past and pain, let me start from new again
'Cause I'm tried of fearing these days

You always hit me when there, there is no reason
To feel superior to me
When all I wanted is a confrontation
So I could find a release

Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall
Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall

Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall
Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall

Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall
Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall

Please don't fail me, don't fail me
Please don't let me fall
