

Nobody Knows You 'Cause Nobody Wants To!

Thalidomide

All my friends have gone away,
gone away for a long stay.
Yesterday I felt no shame,
now my state is plainly tame.

One mistake and all is gone,
One wrong step and you're one.
Friendship is fake,
when you have friends just for having-friends sake.

So I fucked up!
Again I fucked up!
I'm only human,
I did the best I could do.

And then I fucked up,
What do you want?!
I said sorry!
Would it help if I say it again?

Alone like rock on sullen shore,
as billion people, I ask for more.
I want my own place in the sun,
lost in crowd I feel as one.

All my friends have gone away,
gone away for a long stay.
Yesterday I felt no shame,
now my state is plainly tame.

It's so easy,
tell me the reason,
I did the best I could do.

It's so easy.
What do you want?!
I said sorry!
Would it help if I say it again?
