

For The Rose To The Grave

Thaurorod

Kingdom now had two kings
In the end one only can win
Edward the crown on his head
He was born to lead to the glory

Only one way to go
Armies! - To onslaught we plough

Into the battle we go
Then we will see who'll rule over the throne

Under the darkened skies
Strong winds by our side

Oh Edward the IVth and his men
Battle in Towton fought to the end
No mercy given or asked
Armies prepare for the final command
For the rose to the grave
For the rose of the braves
For the rose to the grave
For the rose of the braves

Gruelling fight it goes on
Lasting hours warriors lose power
Finally it's crystal clear
Which of two roses perish in fear

Under the darkened skies
Strong winds by our side

Oh Edward the IVth and his men
Battle in Towton fought to the end
No mercy given or asked
Armies prepare for the final command
For the rose to the grave
For the rose of the braves
For the rose to the grave
For the rose of the braves
