

I Think There's Something You Should Know

The 1975

I think there's something you should know
I don't feel like myself, I'm not gonna lie (Lie)
How would you know? It doesn't show
I think there's something you should know (Know, know)
I think there's something you should know
I'm feeling like someone else, like somebody else
I don't feel myself, it could be my hell
I'd like to meet myself and smoke clouds
I think there's something you should know

(I think there's something...)
(I don't wanna be someone else)
(I don't wanna be someone else)
(I don't wanna be someone)
(I don't wanna be someone else)

Get the phone when you feel alright
Get the phone when you feel alright
Get the phone when you feel alright
Get the phone when you feel alright

I feel so seen in occult dreams
Sleeping terrifies me, otherwise, I'm fine, see
It's all back and forth, back on the dope, back on the floor
Oh, please ignore me, I'm just feeling sorry for myself
Feeling like someone, like somebody else, who don't feel themselves
Paying for their wealth with their mental health
I'd like to meet myself in smart clothes
I think there's someplace I should go
I think there's something you should know

I think there's something you should know
I think there's something you should know
