All the Lucky People

The Adicts

Goodness gracious Mrs. Smith's a very lucky lady paints her toe nails rainbow colours & her hair is green She won the lottery & shared her fortune with a sailor Thery're so happy on their little island made of dreams all the lucky people god all mighty Mr. Brown his money drives him crazy he's got so much he doesn't have a care he sits alone on his thrown his castle is so empty he used to work in factory, in the square, he was happy there.

all the lucky people bloody hell sweet little daisy's got all daddy's cash she blew it on all bubblies & yellow puppy dogs she lost the mansion, lost the roller, lost the chauffer too she took off with her jewelry & trimmed her curly locks she trimmed her curly locks, all the lucky people living in their dreams all the lucky people i wonder where they've been all the lucky people im one of the lucky people