You don't need a leader
To tell you who to be
What is there to stop you from being free

Well what do you say
This is going to be my day...

You can be a hero You can be a king It's in you're hands To be Anything

Well what do you say
This is going to be my day...

You don't need a leader
To tell you who to be
What is there to stop you from being free

Well what do you say
This is going to be my day...

You can be a hero You can be a king It's in you're hands To be Anything

Well what do you say
This is going to be my day...
