

New Church

The Adverts

Maybe - maybe a fool for trusting
Maybe - maybe a fool for following
The God of wisdom not of love

But I'm riding with the new church
I'm riding with the new church
Relying on the new church
And a new word

Hang on - if you hang on to faith and meekness
Before long it's power for the strong
It's twisted into something evil something wrong

So I'm riding with the new church
I'm riding with the new church
Relying on the new church
And a new word

So long - goodbye to the blind and the weaklings
Be strong - I'll do what I want
I'll follow my feelings
I'll go where they lead me

Strength within you, not without you
The new church needs you
