Closer to Heaven

the sea

The Alan Parsons Project

Rising and falling lighter than air Silently calling no one is there Oh, bird that is flying so high and so free Closer to heaven than you and me

Voices of strangers keep me from sleep Guardian angels watch over the deep A ship that is sailing way out to

Closer to heaven than you and me

Visions of rain fall out of blue skies

Rivers of tears flow out of dry eyes

Answer my question tell me no

Is this the real world or a fool's paradise?

Wind that is blowing so wild and so free  $% \left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\}$

Closer to heaven than you and me

Closer to heaven longing to be Closer to heaven than you and me

Visions of rain fall out of blue skies

Rivers of tears flow out of dry eyes

Answer my question tell me no

Is this the real world or a fool's paradise?

Love that lies sleeping wakes in the night Secrets for keeping that won't see the light

I look to the future and I hope it will be

Closer to heaven than you and me

Closer to heaven longing to be Closer to heaven than you and me
