

White Anger Comedown

The Almighty

I failed the personality test that L. Ron Hubbard gave me
He caught me in the beef bowl looking to score some grave
Zippers cross my eyes hide me from reflection
Even though I'm looking like a perfect imperfection
Why is everybody so unhappy
Why is everybody so unhappy
Come another headtrip creeping through my window
I'm gonna disconnect the phone so I can hear the wind blow
Sipping slow gin and radiation tonic
I'm gonna cup a nod after I vomit
This is a
White anger comedown
White anger comedown
White anger comedown
Why is everybody underwater
Why is everybody under
Feeling supersonic living inside a fish bowl
Where everybody's blowing smoke rings up my asshole
Think I'm hearing voices, they're making me irate
'Cos even though it's early man, they're telling me I'm late
This is a
White anger comedown
White anger comedown
It's white anger comedown
White anger comedown
It's white anger comedown
White anger comedown
It's white anger comedown
White anger comedown
Why is everybody so unhappy
Why is everybody so unhappy
