

The Gifthorse

The Amity Affliction

Stuck on the dark side of the moon
Stuck on the dark side, dark side
Our sadness was like the ships in the night, ships in the night
Both meet at the lighthouse
They were yearning for light, yearning for light
Feel the ocean with tears only I came a ground
And if I close my eyes now
I can still hear the sound, still hear the sound

There's a message at the bottom of this bottle
And it's calling out to me
There's a message at the bottom of this bottle
Saying I can't set you free

My friend, I'll forever have you on repeat
Stuck on the dark side of the moon
Your sadness I hear echoing in the ether
You were light in every room
If I close my eyes I can hear you
Like you're sitting next to me (you're next to me)
Oh brother I hear you, I still hear you calling
I have finally found some peace

Brother I still hear you calling
Never been so aware that I'm falling
Brother I still hear you calling
Never been so aware that I'm falling
Stuck here on for every morning

There's a message at the bottom of this bottle
And it's calling out to me
There's a message at the bottom of this bottle
Saying I can't set you free
There's a message at the bottom of this bottle
Stuck on the dark side of the Moon
There's a message at the bottom of this bottle
Stuck on the dark side of the Moon

Stuck on the dark side of the Moon
Stuck on the dark side, dark side
