

Catchin' Up On Fun

The Archies

I'm watching all the stars at night
Until the break of dawning
Digging all the beauty
Of the sunshine in the morning

Catching up on fun, fun
The fun that I've been missin', whoa, whoa
Catching up on fun, fun
The world and I
The wind and sky
Are holding hands and kissing

I was just a hermit
Locked away from all life's pleasures
But now my heart is open
To its secrets and its treasures

Catching up on fun, fun
The fun that I've been missin', whoa, whoa
Catching up on fun, fun
The world and I
The wind and sky
Are holding hands and kissing

I'm touching, seeing, smelling
Things I thought were lost forever
I'm tasting life and love again
Now that we are together

Catching up on fun, fun
The fun that I've been missin', whoa, whoa
Catching up on fun, fun
The world and I
The wind and sky

The fun that I've been missin', whoa, whoa
The world and I
The wind and sky
Are holding hands and kissing
