

High Tide On Caroline Street

The Automatic

Did you go out last night and leave the light on again?
I don't suppose it matters as we're moments from the end.
The water level rising is permanent an event I didn't try too hard to prevent

So just sit back and try to enjoy it
Don't spoil the mood by moaning about it
So just sit back and try to enjoy it
all because we left it to the last minute

Global warming sounds alright giving the Cardiff weather
And I could use a holiday so easy to - get away so I'm going out and leaving the lights on again

So just sit back and try to enjoy it
Don't spoil the mood by moaning about it
so just sit back and try to enjoy it
all because we left it to the last minute

Lots of spooky ahs..
