

Dreams In Fire

The Awakening

Love, I'm taking you back and I'm giving you
Dreams of gold and white I'm giving you

But dreams are born in fire
But your dreams are born in, born in fire

Oh sweet one
There is ice on your wing tonight
Sweet one
I only live to join you in your flight
Your heart
Set the pace of our destiny
Sweet one
Why did the cold have to intervene

Oh sweet one
I've been here waiting for the hour
For you
To still the water's tide again

But there's fear in your heart
Fear in your heart

Love, I'm taking you back and I'm giving you
Dreams of gold and white I'm giving you

But dreams are born in, born in fire

Oh sweet one
An ancient trust keeps the dark away
Sweet one
Fly harder now the sky is looking grey
Your heart
A shining torch for those below to see
Sweet one
I call your name, I sense your victory

But there's fear in your heart
Fear in your heart

Fear in your heart
