

In Etheria

The Awakening

It's time for my introduction
You might not know me anymore
It's just a case of abduction
There's menace in Etheria

We're woven into absolution
We're tired of the falter call
Don't care much for some bland illusion
There's menace in Etheria

In desperation we are martyred
Screaming as the stones are cast
Drowning in rejected wisdom
There's menace in Etheria
