

Dry Your Tears

The Baseballs

You said "I'll be alright"
As I waved you goodbye
A sweet lie told with a smile
But the only truth is in your teary eyes

Dry your tears
In your eyes
Crystal clear
Shining bright

Let them dry
In this night
Cause you know
That this is not our last goodbye

How I hate to leave you this way
When it's time for snow and sleighs
Just one kiss would save my day
But I'm afraid our mistletoe has to wait

Dry your tears
In your eyes
Crystal clear
Shining bright

Let them dry
In this night
Cause you know
That this is not our last goodbye

Dry your tears
In your eyes
Crystal clear
Shining bright

Dry your tears
In your eyes
Crystal clear
Shining bright

Seasons come and go
But I'll still be with you tomorrow (mmh, tomorrow)
And even angel eyes cry sometimes, sometimes

Dry your tears
In your eyes
Crystal clear
Shining bright

Let them dry
In this night
Cause you know
That this is not our last goodbye
