

Of Human Bondage

The Beautiful Mistake

These tired eyes
this tired heart
let's settle for the moment we'll just give up we'll just play dead we'll drown ourselves in quiet so kiss my cheek and we'll pretend that this is so much better

Please stop us I confess We are liars, we are broken, we are lying in this bed of shame please stop me I confess I'm a liar, I am broken, I'm so utterly confused

The ceilings stare
this wasted life
was it all you hoped for?
these faces red
what have we done more clouds of smoke in my head so what's your name?
what do you like?
oh this is so much better?

So utterly confused
we're so utterly confused
