

No more Reasons

The Berzerker

Preacher, preacher, preacher with a badge
You'd better shut your mouth
Never, anymore
Or I'll shut it for you
Another time, another time
Or on, another day
Never succumbing to...
Hit the mark
Give it up
Full destruction

No more reasons, anymore
Taking what is mine
You're not mine
The last one
Break the mould
I'm taking all
I would want

It's not the same for you
Changing moods have hurt you
You're attracted to my hatred
It's just a matter of time
And I'll take the blame for your failure?

Nothing is found
Nothing really is ever known
Nothing has ever been what it seemed
It's just like this and will be like this for fucking ever!!!
