

Blue

The Birthday Massacre

Plastic blue
Invitations in my room
I've been waiting here for you
Reservations made for two
Sunlight fading

Black tongues speak
Faster than the car can crash
You supply the rumours
And I'll provide the wrath

Romance is breaking every heart in two
Casting shadows in the pale shade of blue

Plastic blue
Conversations in my room
Saving every tear for you
Trusting every word untrue
Twilight fading

Fate changes
Faster than the death of light
You supply the envy
And I'll provide the spite

Reflections cutting every face in two
Casting shadows in the pale shade of blue
