Blue

The Birthday Massacre

Plastic blue
Invitations in my room
I've been waiting here for you
Reservations made for two
Sunlight fading

Black tongues speak
Faster than the car can crash
You supply the rumours
And I'll provide the wrath

Romance is breaking every heart in two Casting shadows in the pale shade of blue

Plastic blue Conversations in my room Saving every tear for you Trusting every word untrue Twilight fading

Fate changes
Faster than the death of light
You supply the envy
And I'll provide the spite

Reflections cutting every face in two Casting shadows in the pale shade of blue
