

The Nightwatchman

The Birthday Party

Don't watch the nightwatchman he finds it hard to say hello
He sits up inside the tower he watches you come and go
And he's waiting for you tonight
Don't watch the nightwatchman he finds it hard to say hello

And he's waiting for you
And he wanna touch you too
I wanna hold you tonight

Don't watch the nightwatchman he cries a lonely tear
Locked up in his little tower he's been there a hundred years
And he's waiting for you tonight
Don't watch the nightwatchman he finds it hard to say hello

And he's waiting for you
And he wanna touch you too
I wanna hold you tonight
And he's waiting for you
And I wanna touch you too
He wanna hold you tonight

Oh tonight
Baby tonight
Tonight
