

Time is Not the Reason

The Black Pacific

I'm going blind - but you know
I can change my situation
I won't try - and you know
Won't fall back in your world
Time is not the enemy - time is not the reason
Don't need no second chance
Now I got a reason to give up the enemy
Won't change my circumstance

And I won't follow
Now my time has come, I control my destiny

Now my time has come, I've got something to believe in
Now my time has come, had enough I'm getting even

I defy - control
I don't need your aggravation
It's my time - and you know
Can't hold me back again
Now I got an enemy I don't need a reason
Don't hear a word you say
Now I got a reason staring right in front of me
Don't tell me what I'll get

And I won't follow
Now my time has come, I control my destiny

Now my time has come, I've got something to believe in
Now my time has come, had enough I'm getting even

Now my time has come, I've got something to believe in
Now my time has come, had enough I'm getting even

Now my time has come, I've got something to believe in
Now my time has come, had enough I'm getting even
