

Permanently Temporary

The Blackmail

I see the dawn alone have a leash around my home I believe in things I know no matter where my head will roam
I see the best is unknown
I pierce along through my bones
for a friend I own luxury is a stone I feel the lens has grown now the loss is here but you're gone I recede from all I owned as long as you're the one to loan
I see the best is unknown
luxury is to get stoned
