

She Don't Know

The Bolshoi

bought you a car
Now you can drive
Way out of the city
It's got overdrive

I bought you a piano
Now you can play
Forget about your problems
On the world today

So I ask you for advice
Looks very nice but she don't know
I can't sleep at night
She's waiting at the light, yea
She don't know, know, know

I bought you a book
Now you can read... Yes
Get the experience without having to bleed

I bought you a plane
Now you can fly
Way, way up in the clouds
In a clear blue sky

So I ask you for advice
Looks very nice but she don't know
I can't sleep at night
She's waiting at the light, yea
She don't know, know, know
