

Someone's Daughter

The Bolshoi

I wish I knew the secret of success
Then I could laugh about it, I could say I couldn't care less
I don't want to wait for the dinner plate (No Way)
Is there any hope for the record plate (Today)
I don't see no sign, I don't see no sign
I just got to get out there and find the thing and make it mine

Can you see her?
Can you see her?
I can see her by the water, looks like someone's daughter
I just want to be with her and talk about it

Oh, here it comes again that old feeling I've had since I don't know when, don't ask me to explain, no
I'm no different, I'm the same, yes
There was once a time when I knew how to (Do Things)
I just don't care, very debonair (No Strings)
I've had lesson one, I've had lesson one
If you get half of what you want out of this life , you're lucky son

Can you see her?
Can you see her?
I can see her by the water, looks like someone's
daughter
I just want to be with her and talk about it

Here she comes.

Can you see her?
Can you see her?
Can you see her?
Can you see her?
I can see her by the water, looks like someone's
daughter
I just want to be with her and talk about it I can see her by the water side, looks like someone's daughter
I just want to be with her and talk about it... Yes.
