

Lifetime of destruction,
my body's just like a burning tumbleweed
As I cruise the lonely streets
The World is passing by and I am just a lone wolf on crusade
With broken dreams and misery

No wonder
You didn't stay

Going down in flames,
I got no sorrows I got no fuckin' shame
Leaving broken hearts behind
I know this bottle won't last for long, so on this highway straight to Hell
I'm going faster than the light

No wonder
You didn't stay
