

Drowned In Lake Daniels

The BossHoss

Good old Jack, he was a happy guy his life was right like a son of a sow The the clouds came up so dark and black it all went wrong for a man named Jack
it all went wrong for a man named Jack
it all went wrong for a man named Jack

All his cows became ill and died his wife left him, she went away one night In and little Jimmy Boy, his only son started to mess with daddy's gun
started to mess with daddy's gun

poor man Jack started drinking and good old Jack started sinking until he found himself drowned in Lake Daniels

All his bad debts from the bars in town he couldn't afford his farm, so he burn it down Jack watched the fire and said:I'm ok without a good bye he tumbled away
without a good bye he tumbled away
without a good bye he tumbled away poor man Jack kept on drinking and good old Jack kept on sinking and one day they found him drowned in Lake Daniels drowned in Lake Daniels they found him drowned in Lake Daniels they found him drowned

The Good old Jack, he was a happy man happy he met his family again his wife and Jimmy in paradise Jack even got his Lake Daniels on ice
Jack even got his Lake Daniels on ice
Jack even got his Lake Daniels on ice
In Jack even got his Lake Daniels on ice
