

Shake A Leg

The BossHoss

Uuhh, shake a leg, baby

money for the honey
she's a hot chick, chocolate, cherry-red lipstick
money for the honey
she's a fun-hunn, tough one, sure gives a good one come on now baby refil this jar come on now baby i'll light your cigar all i want is the best, my baby all your love and tender kisses uh, let me tell you i want you for my own uuhh, shake a leg, baby

chorus:
oh, oh, oh, oh blood, sweat and beers, now cheers and uuh, shake a leg and open your ears yeah the things that you do are pulling me down to the ground again, yeah and i know that you know there's a devil inside of everyone come on let's keep on pretending

she's a good time, night time, bed-time time bomb

money for the honey
she's a green-eyed, red-headed, long legged love-giver come on now baby whatever you are top it off, it's not so far yeah all i want is the best, my baby all you love and tender kisses uh, let me touch you, you already touched me
