

The Nightwatchman

The Boys Next Door

Don't watch the nightwatchman
He finds it hard to say hello
He sits in his silent tower
He watches you come and go

And he's waiting for you tonight
Don't watch the nightwatchman
He finds it hard to say hello

And he's waiting for you
And he wanna touch you too
I wanna hold you tonight

Don't watch the nightwatchman
He cries a lonely tear
Locked up in his little tower
He's been there a hundred years

And he's waiting for you tonight
Don't watch the nightwatchman
He finds it hard to say hello

And he's waiting for you
And he wanna touch you too
I wanna hold you tonight

And he's waiting for you
And I wanna touch you too
He wanna hold you tonight

Oh tonight, baby tonight, tonight
