

Mansion in the Sky

The Brian Jonestown Massacre

could you forget the awful things i've done?
well i'm sure i will become your favorite son.
if you forgive the awful things i've done.
sweet Jesus could you take this pain away?
sweet Jesus could you drag this shame away?
if the devil offers know that i will say.
"sweet jesus blood it washed my sins away."
so open up your big house in the sky yes, open up your big house in the sky.
but don't ask me what i've done cause i will lie.
just open up your big house in the sky,
open up your mansion in the sky.
