

The Devil May Care

The Brian Jonestown Massacre

Say goodbye to mom and dad
The two best friends I never had
To be knowing where I'm going,
How about you?
Give them all my love so much
I promise that I'll stay in touch
If I know where I am going
So will you
(and you too)

I've thought about so many things
It only complicates my dreams
It's keeping me from knowing what to do
Got to go I'm losing touch
I think about you way too much
It's keeping me from knowing me or you
(or you)
