

Burn

The Bunny the Bear

I wanna watch you burn, watch you go up in flames
I wanna make it hurt in every god damn way
I hope you're breaking down when you find my voice
Screaming out loud, shameless, and proud

Just like you
I'm struggling to be a better man
I just might lose
I'm trying to find a reason to pretend
I'm not just like you

I'm struggling to... I'm struggling
You call it what you want...
I'm better than that...

I hope I make it out alive
From this head of mine
It's hateful and wide just like your eyes
This can't be true

I'm struggling to be a better man
It's just no use
I think I found my demons, they're not dead
And they're calling you

I'm struggling to be a better man
I just might lose
I'm trying to find a reason to pretend
I'm not just like you

I'm struggling to... I'm struggling
You call it what you want...
I'm better than that...

Truthfully, I know I'll be alright
I'm living in my time
My futures so bright
I can't rush my life
