

For You

The Bunny the Bear

I fell in all of your good graces
I think you're turning us
That I'm falling again

Your silent stare [?]
And it's so unfair when your taste fills the air
I hear your voice when I'm calling for care
[?] frozen leaves to my hand

I do the things that most wouldn't dare
[?] when we share the air

There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do for you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do to you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do for you
For you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do for you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do to you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do for you
For you

I'll cave in whenever you see fate
You already know that
Here we go again

And all that I know [?] is all I will breathe in Breathe [?] my love is burning inside you
Take your [?] revert to you
You (You)
You (You)
Revert to you
Revert to you

There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do for you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do to you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do for you
For you
There ain't a whole lot I couldn't do for you
There ain't a whole lot I wouldn't do to you
There ain't a whole lot I couldn't do for you
For you

I'll cave in whenever you see fate
You already know that
