

Love, Trust and Compromise

The Bunny the Bear

Our song, has swallowed the sun.
It's killing me softly, our worlds drift apart.
And you're dead wrong, I couldn't live without you...

Cut all these wires that control the beat of my heart. (My heart!)
Cut all these wires that control the beat of my, dead, heart.

Take all I have, please just take all the time that you need.
Take all you need
Take all you need
Break me in pieces, and toss the remains in the sea. (The sea...)

Our song, has swallowed the sun.
It's killing me softly, our worlds drift apart.
And you're dead wrong, I couldn't live without you...

You know that I tried.
Take all I had, why don't you break me into pieces?
You know that I tried.
Well, you know that I tried, you know I'd do anything.
You know that I tried.
Please, just take all the time that you need.
You know that I... tried.

Run with my heart,
Choke on the lies,
Tear me apart and call it:
Love, trust, and compromise.

Run with my heart,
Choke on the lies,
Tear me apart and call it:
Love, trust, and compromise.

You know, I'd follow you, down,
To the pits of hell.
You know, I'd follow you, down,
To the pits of hell.

Run with my heart,
Choke on the lies,
Tear me apart and call it:
Love, trust, and compromise.

Run with my heart,
Choke on the lies,
Tear me apart and call it:
Love, trust, and compromise.
