Unbroken

The Butterfly Effect

When all that you've known
Is taken away
Inside a heart that died
Living a lonely life

Fractured our dreams
And shattered the wind
Leaving the only way to hold on
Fading black to grey

It's all right
You're safer here with me
It's all right
So many words unspoken

This town
I'll get out of this town
Just got to get my head straight
And I'll remain unbroken

The deeper the wounds
The scars will remain
Only the hands of time will hold us
Go back hit rewind

It's all right
You're safer here with me
It's all right
So many words unspoken

This town
I'll get out of this town
Just got to get my head straight
And I was always hoping

That this time
I'll get it right this time
Just walking down a straight line
And I'll remain unbroken

You
I'm searching for you
Calling for you
So many words unspoken

And this time
I'll get it right this time
Keep walking down a straight line
And I'll remain unbroken
