

Tell Me

The Cassandra Complex

Love is blind, but I'm learning sing language
Love is blind, but I'm learning to see
Learning to be what you want me to be
Learning to be all that you need
I was brought up to believe in love
I was brought up to believe in everything
And I do, every time I see you
I believe nothing else is true

Tell me, tell me all that you want from me
Tell me, tell me all that you need from me
Tell me, I'll be right there for you
Tell me, I'll be right there for you

Love is blind, I wish I could see
What's in you mind, when you look at me
If love is blind, then understand me please
Why it took so long for me to see

Tell me, tell me all that you want from me
Tell me, tell me all that you need from me
Tell me, I'll be right there for you
Tell me, I'll be right there for you

I woke up last night, looked like the sky was on fire
I kissed your lips, watched the flames grow higher
You are my sky, you are my funeral pyre
All that exists is all you desire

Tell me, tell me all that you want from me
Tell me, tell all that you need from me
Tell me, I'll be right there for you
Tell me, I'll be right there for you

Tell me, I'll be right there for you
Tell me, I'll be right there for you
