

Hooray For Michael

The Cats

Come on and dance Michael, dance on
Come on and dance Michael, dance on

He loves his mother, adores his brother
Who's five years older and the driver of
The bus that goes to school
He has a girlfriend, he's holding her hand
He's always happy but goes crazy
When those "fools" call him a fool

Come on and dance Sarah, dance on
Come on and dance Sarah, dance on

She's into music, just Roxy-Music
Her secret is no real secret
All you've got to do is ask
She's gonna marry, her Brian Ferry
He doesn't know yet but to Sarah
That's just a minor task

Hooray for Michael, he has the sun in his heart
Hooray for Sarah, she's all fun in her face Hooray for all of them, they won't set the world on fire
Hooray for Michael, he has the sun in his heart

Come on and dance Simon, dance on
Come on and dance Simon, dance on

He plays a sad song, but not for too long
Because his head just can't remember
Why his eyes began to cry
He made his own words, to a song he once heard
And when he sings his wicked song
Just watched the twinkle in his eyes

Hooray for Michael, he has the sun in his heart
Hooray for Sarah, she's all fun in her face
Hooray for all of them, they won't set the world on
fire
Hooray for Michael, he has the sun in his heart

Hooray for Michael, he has the sun in his heart
Hooray for Sarah, she's all fun in her face
Hooray for all of them, they won't set the world on
fire
Hooray for Michael, he has the sun in his heart
