

She's So In Love

The Cats

People talk, say they ain't seen you around
And say: "Come to think of it, it's been a quite a while"

They all say: "Never thought we'd see you apart"
I mean to say that ain't your style
Then I go and tell them, babe

She's so in love, so in love, so in love
Calls me ev'ry day
She's so in love, so in love, she told me today

It won't be long, won't be long, won't be long
'Till she's by my side
It won't be long, won't be long 'till she's back to stay

You made me a liar, babe
You made me a liar, babe
You made me a liar, babe

I just can't take all the sorrow and sympathy
I guess I'm too proud to say that you're gone for good
So I'm a fool but pretending's the only way
Since you stood up, opened the door and just walked away
But still I go and tell them, babe

She's so in love, so in love, so in love
Calls me ev'ry day
She's so in love, so in love, she told me today

It won't be long, won't be long, won't be long
'Till she's by my side
It won't be long, won't be long 'till she's back to stay

You made me a liar, babe
You made me a liar, babe

She's so in love, so in love, so in love
Calls me ev'ry day
She's so in love, so in love, she told me today

It won't be long, won't be long, won't be long
'Till she's by my side
It won't be long, won't be long 'till she's back to stay

She's so in love
She's so in love, so in love, she told me today

It won't be long
It won't be long 'till she's by my side
It won't be long, won't be long 'till she's back to stay
