

Settle down, we ain't alone anymore, we ain't afraid.
We cannot be alone anymore.
Pardon all the mess but the offer fits.
as we shake and as we sing along, the harmony is not me alone a nymore.
My only regret is nothing.
If only those were my steps
keep them in their placement.
This alone shall be the death of me.
This is everything they all wanted.
Figure out your confidence.
But the tango begs for a partnership.
So make it a romance.
All in all we stay face against it.
Does this mean I'm a threat?
Well am I a threat or am I success?
