

Just Between You And Me

The Chordettes

Sitting in the sand
We were holding hands.
You whispered I love you
Just between you and me

Everyone had gone
We stayed on and on
Vowing to be lovers
Just between you and me

I won't tell my mother
I won't tell my brother
They don't think that we're of age
No congratulations, until graduation
Then we'll turn life's page

'Til we tell the world
We will both agree
It's our little secret
Just between you and me

Just between you and me
Just between you and me
Just between you and me
