

Take Heart

The City Harmonic

I'm lost in a moment of doubt
'Cause my whole world is turning upside-down
But I built my house on the rock:
Though wind and waves both storm and rage
I'll stand my ground
With a hope that hopes through thick and thin
With a hope that knows it's bound to win
This hope I find it in Your heart
And a whole world of trouble can't tear us apart
Moments come and moments fade
But Your unending love remains
It might be dark but I'm not afraid
Dawn's about to break:
Take heart
I'm found in a moment of truth:
This old world and all creation longs for You
And I am a child of God:
Free in name, not free from pain
And I'm longing too
With a hope that hopes through thick and thin
With a hope that knows it's bound to win
This hope I find it in Your heart
And a whole world of trouble can't tear us apart.
Moments come and moments fade
But Your unending love remains
It might be dark but I'm not afraid
Dawn's about to break:
Take heart
Moments come and moments fade
But Your unending love remains
It might be dark but I'm not afraid
'Cause I know dawn's about to break:
The Son of God, You calm the seas
That rage inside the heart of me
The heart of God is what I need
You've overcome the world
Take heart
So I take heart.
