For The Love Of The People

The Clark Sisters

For the love of the people he gave his life For the love of the people he gave all he had What more could he give to us than his love

For God so love the world that he gave his only son That whosoever (beliveth on him) Shall have everlasting life

What more could he give to us than his love? What more could he give (than his love)