

He's a Real Friend

The Clark Sisters

Hey y'all I wanna talk about a friend, a real friend

People today misunderstood the word to friend
Is more than just a friend
But the man up above gives us his love
And I tell you we should give some to him for his love

His love is real (oh true, yes it's good enough for me and you)
His love is right (won't you open up and let him give you life)
He's a real friend (closer than a brother)
He's a real friend (friend like no other)
He's a real friend (there's no doubt about it)
He's a real, kind kind of friend

Life is so funny, we live and we learn
Sometimes we get hurt and sometimes we get served
But I know a friend who's a friend forever
Come rain or shine, stormy weather

His love is real (so real, yes it's here inside and I can feel it)
His love is fine (I'm so glad he's mine, all mine)
He's a real friend (closer than a brother)
He's a real friend (ooh, friend like no other)
He's a real friend (no, no-no no, no-no doubt about it)
He's a real, that kind of friend
He's a real friend (he is a friend forever)
He's a real friend (a friend, a friend in stormy weather)
He's a real friend (no, no, no, no doubt about it)
He's a real, that kind of friend

Throw your hands up, chop chop
Praise him if you will
I know you wanna, 'cause you can't sit still
Don't you worry, the glory, [?]
He'll [?] you, then guide you, if you feel the way that I do
He's my friend, oh yes he's my friend
Put you to the test 'til the very end
And if you ask, he's there when you need him
Hmm, yes indeed-um, he's a real friend

His love is real (so real, yes it's here inside and I can feel it)
His love is fine (I'm so glad he's mine)
He's a real friend (all mine)
He's a real friend (ooh, friend like no other)
He's a real friend (there's no, no, no, no, no doubt about it)
He's a real, that kind of friend (he's a real, oh yeah)
He's a real friend (yes he is, yeah, yes he is)
He's a real friend (a friend in storm-st-stormy weather)
He's a real friend (no, no-no, no, no-no no doubt about it)
He's a real, that kind of friend (oh yeah)
