

Guardian of Time

The Claymore

Can you hear me in the night?
I am his son , I am the master of your destiny
The chosen one , the gift of god
The secret one , his voice

Flying on the winds of broken souls
Born to reign
Secret of a life in immortality
I'm the guardian of time

Feel the pressure behind your eyes
I look at you and taste the sweat of your fear tonight
To tear your hopes , your innocence
To take your life , your souls

Flying on the winds of broken souls
Born to reign
Secret of a life in immortality
I'm the guardian of time

Minutes and hours are passing me by
The world is falling down and bleeds
Running seconds and sands of time
Sailing the seven seas of death

Flying on the winds of broken souls
Born to reign
Secret of a life in immortality
I'm the guardian of time
