

Mr Pitiful

The Commitments

They call me Mr. Pitiful
Baby that's my name
They call me Mr. Pitiful
That's how I got my fame
But nobody seems to understand now
What makes a man feel so blue?
They call me Mr. pitiful cause
I lost someone just like you

The call me Mr. Pitiful
This everybody knows now
They call me Mr. Pitiful
Most everyplace I go
But nobody seems to understand now
How can a man sing such a sad tone?
When he lost everything that he had

How can I explain to you
Somebody can get so very blue?
How can I tell you about my things
If all things won't do?

Mr. Pitiful, baby, that's my name
They call me Mr. Pitiful
That's how I got my fame
But nobody seems to understand now
What makes a man can feel so blue
They call me Mr. pitiful 'cause
I lost someone just like you?

Everything is going wrong
I've lost everything I had
I gotta sing this sad song
I gotta get back to her one more time
One more time...
