

Two Left Feet

The Copyrights

What have we done?
What have we done?
What have we done?
Absolutely nothing
What have we become?
What have we become?
What have we become?
Absolutely nothing

We'll be there, laughing in your face
We'll be there, to point out your mistakes
We'll be there, dancing on your grave
Where you'll be alone again, and so will we

What have we done?
What have we done?
What have we done?
Absolutely nothing

We'll be there, laughing in your face
We'll be there, to point out your mistakes
We'll be there, dancing on your grave
Where you'll be alone again, and so will we
Dancing terribly on your grave
We've got two left feet in the grave
