

It Will Be Mine

The Coronas

I'm not sure what I just said
It took too long to tell you that I'll never had a filter turn on Well I suppose I'm still a mess and
It seems my friends are all getting wed
And I'm not sure where all this came from

At all the hurt we went before
We're making all those sweeter I'm sure
And she'll mind me and I'll mind her
We'll mind each other

It will be mine
It will be mine
It will be mine, love
Bye all my friends
Not scared to take a chance
She'll always know when I need her, mind her
And it will be mine
And I will guide her too
Not scared to speak the truth
And she look at me the way I was once viewed

At all the hurt we went before
We're making all those sweeter I'm sure
And she'll mind me and I'll mind her
We'll mind each other

It will be mine
It will be mine
