

Furious Boy

The Crash

When a furious boy met a sinister girl
They raged and they yelled till the demons turned to stone
And the angels came near, it was one touch and all became beautiful

The feeling's odd, the fever passed
Yeah, this blood is calm, my life stays on
They color the world

This curious thing changed everything
Opened the doors and led to a waltz
They'd endlessly dance along corridors and halls, throughout the worlds

The feeling's odd, the fever passed
Yeah, this blood is calm, my life stays on
Oh and the love in their veins will kill the pain
And they so stay, color the world

This curious thing changed everything
Opened the doors, led to a waltz
They'd endlessly dance along corridors and halls, throughout the worlds

The feeling's odd, the fever passed
Yeah, this blood is calm and life stays on
They color the world
