

Call To Arms

The Crimson Armada

This is not a call to arms
This is a call to love like a brother
This is not a call to arms
This is the call to love one another

Wake up!
We can't fight a battle
Ill-equipped and without proper handle
You know we can never fight a battle
We were never meant to fight

This is not a call to arms
This is a call to love like a brother
This is not a call to arms
This is the call to love one another

Lord, You are my victory.
And nothing else matters
But the heart that shines through me

Lord, You are my victory
And nothing else matters
Lord, We are the victory
You fought for us
So we will join together and sing:
We are the victory.

So stand with me brothers and sisters
Let the world know that we are the spirit
So stand with me brothers and sisters
Let the world know that we are the victory
