I'm so glad you came I'm so glad
You remembered to see how we're ending our last Dance together expectant too puctual but
Prettier than ever I really believed that this time
It's forever

But older than me now more constant more real And the fur and the mouth and the innocence Turned to hair and contentment that hangs in Abasement a woman now standing where once There was only a girl

I'm so glad you came I'm so glad you Remembered the walking through walls in the Heart of December the blindness of happiness Of falling down laughing and I really believed That this time was forever

But Christmas falls late now flatter and colder And never as bright as when we used to fall all This in an instant before I can kiss you a woman Now standing were once there was only a girl

I'm so glad that you came I'm so glad you
Remembered to see how we're ending our last Dance together reluctantly cautiously but
Prettier than ever I really believed that this time
It's forever

But Christmas falls late now flatter and colder And never as bright as when we used to fall and Even if we drink I don't think we would kiss in The way that we did when the woman was only a Girl
